

POWER NEWS @ 25TH OF MAY, 2016

1. I Didn't Promise Regular Power In Six Months - Fashola

The Minister of Power, Works and Housing, Mr. Babatunde Fashola (SAN), has denied ever saying as the then Governor of Lagos State that if given a chance, he could fix the problem of electricity in Nigeria within six months.....

<http://www.punchng.com/didnt-promise-regular-power-six-months-fashola/>

2. Power Output Seen At 20% Of 2016 Peak After Attacks

Power output in Nigeria plunged to a fifth of this year's peak after attacks on natural gas pipelines cut supplies of the fuel to electricity producers, according to Egbin Power Plc, the country's largest generator.....

<http://www.thisdaylive.com/index.php/2016/05/25/power-output-seen-at-20-of-2016-peak-after-attacks/>

3. Why BPE Sits On Privatized Power Firms' Board

The acting Director-General of the Bureau of Public Enterprises (BPE), Dr Vincent Onome Akpotaire, has said that the choice of the bureau's staff as alternate directors on the boards of privatised power companies is to checkmate the investors and not for pecuniary gains.....

<http://www.dailytrust.com.ng/news/business/why-bpe-sits-on-privatised-power-firms-boards--dg/148246.html>

4. We Are In A Bad Situation

Vice President Yemi Osinbajo says Nigeria is facing a very dire situation on power supply. He was speaking in Lusaka, Zambia, yesterday at the commencement of the African Development Bank (AfDB) annual general meeting, with the theme "Energy and Climate Change".....

<http://www.dailytrust.com.ng/news/general/power-we-re-in-very-bad-situation--osinbajo/148290.html>